Bainbridge International Ltd expands its global network with new distributor for Hong Kong & China

Bainbridge International Ltd is pleased to announce a new distributor for its Sailcloth, Sail Making Hardware and Cover Making product ranges in Hong Kong and China.

With effect from 1st of October 2014, Sky International will be responsible for sales and technical support of Bainbridge International products.

James Hudson, Export Sales Manager of Bainbridge International distribution division commented on the appointment “We are excited to have the Sky International team on board with us at Bainbridge – it is a great endorsement of the global appeal of our products and brands to the Sailmaker and Boat Owner.”

Sky International will stock a wide variety of Bainbridge International's sailcloth and sail making hardware including the ever popular AIRX and Ocean Sailcloths as well as provide access to the full sail making product range.
